Statement by Donald W. Dickson II, Esq.

Attorney Retained by the Texas State Troopers Association

In light of recent actions by the Texas Attorney General, the Texas State Troopers Association wants to eliminate any confusion about its members and its services.

In particular, we want to make it very clear that TSTA should not be confused in any way with the organization that the Texas Attorney General has shut down and put into receivership.

The Texas State Troopers Association is a nonprofit and tax-exempt voluntary labor association formed in 1984 to represent the non-supervisory, first-line officers of the Texas Department of Public Safety. TSTA provides valuable and meaningful benefits to its members, including supplemental insurance products, legal representation in duty-related matters, advocacy before the Texas Legislature, and financial assistance to Troopers and their families in times of crisis and extraordinary need.

We applaud the AG's long overdue actions and hope they will put to rest any lingering confusion or concerns about TSTA. We are very grateful for the financial support we receive from the people of Texas and are confident they will continue to support our efforts.

Now, TSTA will move forward and continue its normal operations.
